Games, Prizes, Feature Annual 'Play Day'

Two Hundred and Fifty Boys and Girls Participate in Events.

DR. KING GIVES AWARDS

Over 250 boys and girls ran wild on the playground last Friday afternoon, the annual "Play Day" featured by presentation of prizes for the season.

The instructors divided them into four groups according to age and all kinds of competitive games were staged. They included dashes, basketball throw, ring toss, base-running, baseball accuracy throw, three-legged race, bowling, bicycle race, sack race, spoon, wheelbarrow race and many others. At the conclusion of the events Dr. LeRoy A. King, chairman of the Recreation Board, presented the prizes to the winners.

The following were the prize winners in the various events: Senior boys—baseball accuracy, James Gallagher; base-runners, Mike McGarry; ring toss, "Och" Smith; 100-yard dash, Bob

Community Building Addition to Provide Showers at Playground

Work is well under way on an addition to the Narberth Community Building at the rear which will provide showers and toilet facilities for the children at the playground.

Just the basement room will be completed this fall, but it is planned to add a first story addition in the spring for the use of the library.

Borough labor, which has been on half time for most of the summer, is back on full time for this job. It is expected to cost about $600.

Davimen Must Win Crucial Contest to Stay In League Race.

By DAVE CASEY

Gene Davis' Narberth baseballers will face their most important game of the season when they clash with the season when they clash with Danny Hemcher's Bryn Mawr Redmen this Saturday afternoon at the Narberth Playground. The flying Redmen, who have captured six straight games in the second-half race, will virtually clinch the title if they manage to defeat the Davimen in this crucial contest. Narberth, which holds the second place position, has suffered but one defeat this half and this was at

He was picked up unconscious on the grass by his mother and taken to Bryn Mawr Hospital, where physicians said he escaped with bruises.

All Grades Start Work on Monday, September the 14th

The Narberth public schools will open for all grades in the reconstructed building on Monday morning, September 14. The classrooms in the upper grade building will be ready for occupancy at that time. The lower floor will not be completed then, rendering it necessary to postpone the opening of the cafeteria until a later date.

Pupils will be excused before lunch time on the opening day of school, W. James Drennan, supervising principal, stated, but full-day sessions will be in order thereafter.

Stites Describes "Courthouse Ring"; Boyd Visits Meeting

PLAN WOMEN'S GROUP

Seventy men of the Borough gathered in the hall over the Narberth Theatre Monday night to devise ways and means of electing two Narberth men to County positions. As part of the festivities, the methods of County Boss Charles Johnson were taken for a good, hard ride.

The meeting, under the initial chairmanship of John J. Cabrey, and the permanent chairmanship of Wilmer G. Crowell, was in behalf of Fred Walzer for Sheriff and Louis A. Young for County Commissioner, although every speaker urged support of the entire Boyd-Just ticket.

"A neighborly, intimate gathering" was the description of Mr. Cabrey in opening the session. Pride in Narberth's distinction of having two candidates on the ticket, and contempt for the Johnson organization featured Mr. Cabrey's keynote talk. "The only excuse for the existence of the present county group is selfishness and self-perpetuation," he said.

Former Senator Fletcher W. Stites, long a foe of Johnsonism, traced the growth of the former strong leadership into a "Courthouse ring" of revolving jobs.

"I want to register a protest," he

Narberth Theatre Notes

"Born to Love," in which Constance Bennett appears at Narberth this Friday and Saturday, is another of her popular sex dramas. In its place, at Saturday's matinee, Wheeler and Woolsey will entertain in "Cracked Nuts." Also on the week-end bill is another "Adventure in Africa," and an Andy Clyde comedy.

Joe E. Brown, of the wide grin, will amuse Narberth theatregoers next Monday and Tuesday in "Broadminded," his newest comedy. On Wednesday and Thursday Paul Lukas and Kay Francis give dramatic performances in another gang thriller, "Vice Squad."

Coming next Friday and Saturday to Narberth is Earl Derr Bigger's Saturday Evening Post detective story, "The Black Camel," in which Warner Oland gives another pleasing "Charlie Chan" performance.

At the Egyptian

The Egyptian Theatre, which will celebrate its fourth anniversary next week, offers "Daddy Long Legs" as its attraction this Friday and Saturday, including Saturday matinee. Janet Gaynor and Warner Baxter give a pleasing performance of this popular story, which is one of the year's films most recommended for enjoyment by the entire family.

"Girl Habit," at the Cynwyd Theatre next Monday and Tuesday, is a comedy at once nonsensical and sophisticated, for people who are not too critical of plot. Charles Ruggles is the nonchalant and diverting star. Also on the program is "Rough Seas," a Charles Chase comedy.

Robert Montgomery gives a smooth and interesting stellar performance in "Man in Possession," the Egyptian's feature next Wednesday and Thursday.

The Skippy kids—Jackie Searl, Mitzi Green, etc., and Louise Fazenda will amuse Cynwyd fans next Friday and Saturday in "Forbidden Adventure," a comedy whose more appropriate title is "Newlyrich." Also billed are Laurel and Hardy in their new absurdity, "Our Wife."

Thirty Turn Out for Junior High Football Practice

Coach Dick Mattis has had a good turnout for morning practice the past week, over 30 boys reporting, and his Junior High football prospects look good for another championship this year.

With Mike Zengel, Johnson and McMahon back, he has a nucleus for a winning combination, for those three are real football men and have the beef to back up their arguments.

Parkinson and Heller are promising candidates for the backfield, and as they had some experience last year the chances for a good ball-carrying ensemble are bright.

Mr. Lincoln, assistant coach, will be on hand the first of next week to help Mattis in the work.

Those children who were enrolled in the Narberth public schools kindergarten may enter the first grade. Vaccination certificates and evidences of age must be presented for all children not previously enrolled in the school, regardless of grade.

Busses will leave at the usual time and places. Bus tickets will be given out at a later date, to be announced in "Our Town."

Narberth Scores 13 Runs in One Inning Against Colwyn

By DAVE CASEY

A run-making exhibition in the third inning that has never been equaled on the Narberth playground assisted the Narberth team in overwhelming the sad aggregation called Colwyn on Wednesday night by the score of 16-3. Eight base hits and three errors by the visitors allowed the home team to put across 13 runs in this unparalleled inning.

Three pitchers, including one Dick Kent, who wore a Narberth uniform earlier in the season, suffered under the bombardment of the local batsmen. The leading hitters of the evening were Joe Rubincam, Bob Martin and Ray Young. Rubincam performed the unusual feat of getting four safe hits inside of three innings, while Martin obliged with a long home run and two singles and Young crashed out a double and a single.

A Letter From Mr. Cook

To the Editor of Our Town:

The Bryn Mawr and Ardmore local papers always publish the sheriff's sales with deed descriptions etc., prior to these very interesting events.

We note that you are still maintaining that "whatever is, is right," so how about giving us news that your readers ought to have?

Narberth is in Montgomery County and an essential part of the Johnson principality and your paper is entitled to some of the gravy dished out from our million dollar county seat. As it is you are not getting the crumbs.

What do you think of the audacity of Lou Young and Fred Walzer daring to run for two sacred county offices against the august wishes of the "Laird of Plymouth"?

Yours truly,

Chester Preston Cook.

Why Narberth Is Sidetracked

In a letter to the editor, published elsewhere in this issue, Mr. Chester P. Cook, a resident of Merion but an owner of many properties here and a business man of the Borough, interrogates us on various points.

In reply to his first query as to why we do not publish Sheriff's sales, the answer simply is that we are not paid to do so. They are a form of County legal advertising which, at the present time, are dealt out to henchmen of the Johnson regime.

This situation, we hold, is not only illogical but vicious. That is the extent to which we agree with Mr. Cook's contention that we approve of the present condition. County legal advertising, such as Sheriff's sales, should not be handed out as a political plum to favorites of the "court-house gang" but should be published in those papers of the County where the properties involved are located. Thus sheriff's sales of Narberth properties would be published in "Our Town," Norristown sales in the Norristown papers, etc. Under the present arrangements sales of properties all over Montgomery County are published in one or two Lower Merion papers. Owners of properties involved have but a ghost of a chance of ever seeing anything in print about sales to transpire.

We quite agree with Mr. Cook when he says "Our Town" is entitled to some of the "gravy dished out from our million-dollar county seat," but until there is a change in the political alignment, and we would not be surprised to see one this fall, there would seem to be little hope of a logical and fair solution of the problem.

As to the audacity of "Lou" Young and Fred Walzer in running for County offices against the wishes of Boss Johnson, it is high time such an event took place. The Main Line section has had no proper representation in the County government at Norristown for many years. We are advocating the nomination of these two men because we believe this section of the County should have representation. In the case of Mr. Young, who is running for County Commissioner, we feel that every vote cast for him at the Primaries is a blow toward redeeming the government of the County from the principle of one-man leadership. Under Mr. Johnson, it has become a family affair with his son-in-law in the Commissioners' office and the latter's brother-in-law on the bench. This hereditary principle in government is not only un-American but works disadvantageously in the average citizen's interests.

The aim of the opposition to the organization is not one-man leadership but the leadership of several men, a round table on which various sections will be represented and in which they will have equal say. Under this form of leadership there is no chance for a family tyranny to develop nor for the leadership to originate from but one part of the County.

Narberth has a peculiar distinction in this year's campaign, with two candidates on the ticket. Let us make our voice heard in County politics.

The Men Step Forth

The news that a group of men in Narberth plan to establish a bridge club is encouraging to those who have looked forward for years to the existence of a men's group in the Borough. It is odd that Narberth, with the greatest community spirit in this section, should have neglected the men so long.

It is true that the male part of the populace get together for the baseball banquet and the firemen's banquet once a year, but there is no permanent group. Bala-Cynwyd has its Neighborhood Club; Wayne its Men's Club, but Narberth has had to rely on women's groups or mixed company.

Of course, we don't all play bridge, but it is a step in the right direction. Perhaps after the men folks find out how pleasant it is to get together with their neighbors regularly we may have an honest-to-goodness men's club. It used to be, when everybody went in town on the train, that every man knew every other man. Narberth has grown, has bought autos, and has drifted apart a little too much. More power to the auction and contract fans!

Narberth's new Players' organization is destined to make its first public appearance earlier than was anticipated. And that will be on the road, as it were, instead of at home, in the Wayne historical Pageant celebrating incidents in the life of General "Mad" Anthony Wayne to be held in that town the latter part of the month.

'TIME OUT'

Tommy Macklin Looks Over

Lower Merion's Grid Prospects

Well, Tommy's back, and he's been taking "Time Out" for the past few days to look over Albert Adam's football prospects on Pennypacker Field. The result is, I'm writing with tears in my eyes, and not to music, either.

Adam's squad this year is light, oh, so light. And green, oh, so green. But they're fast, in spots very fast, and what is more important, they are keen to play football.

Now that I've scattered the blues all over the opening paragraphs, I will proceed to go into details and maybe things will brighten up as we go along.

Captain Lachman Rinehart, 185 pounds, will look after the centre position capably as last year, barring accidents. He's the best center in the suburbs. Herbert Thomas, 155 pounds, will be a capable end. Dominic Polilli, 195 pounds on the hoof, will be a real tackle, and only a Junior. These, gentlemen, represent the veteran members of the squad.

To complete his line, Coach Adam will have to fill in with green material, and none of it heavy in the matter of beef. Harry Grauch, 155 pounds, has had some experience at end. Connie Wickham, in the hundred and forties, is all fight and brains, and will cause other candidates for wing positions to hustle. Young Everhart, of Cynwyd, another lightweight, can be used at end or may turn out to be a first-class interfering guard. He moves around like a football player, and is almost certain to make a berth for himself somewhere. Talley, of Bryn Mawr; Harry Lott, of Cynwyd, and other candidates, most of whom are built along the general lines of Bill Tilden, will vie with each other for vacant guard and tackle berths.

It seems to me at this early date that Adam will have to depend in some degree to his sophomore candidates from last year's Junior High champion organization. Titlow, Mason, Kelly, et al., are big, bony, he-boys who can play in the line and give a good account of themselves. Harvey Buek and Mike Iochavelli will make the backfield without much doubt. Buek is a heavy but fast plunger, and can pass and cut the corners beautifully. Iochavelli is the smallest but fastest backfield man in the suburbs. He's a flash of light, and there's no doubt about it. He's clever and with his basketball experience can handle passes as well as any high school boy.

The backfield men back this year will not win ball games for the Maroon unaided. Bob Taylor, Buck Ryan, "Shorty" Johnson and Victor Newborg are the only ones, and Newborg is to be shifted to a guard position. That leaves a fair backfield, however, when you add the two boys from last year's Junior High. Ryan, if he remains eligible, is one of the best plunging backs the Maroon has had in years. Taylor and Buek are heavy and fast, and Johnson and Iochavelli are speed artists.

Adam has his work cut out for him; he won't have as good a team as last year's, but you can gamble that the club will be in there winning games, and again giving the fans of Lower Merion their money's worth in good football.

Wills Son $1

According to the will of Harry G. Parker, of 504 S. Narberth Avenue, Merion, his widow, Mary Elizabeth Parker, is named sole beneficiary of his estate. The amount has not yet been determined. She is also named executrix of the will, one of whose codicils directed that Eldred W. Parker, son of the deceased, shall receive "one dollar for reasons good and sufficient to me."

Big Inning Gives Narberth 7-3 Win Over Media A. A.

By DAVE CASEY

A determined uprising in the fifth inning of last Monday night's game allowed Narberth to break their two-game twilight losing streak and capture a 7-3 victory over the Media A. A. of Philadelphia.

The inning, which was featured by two costly errors by Nask, the Media shortstop, and the loud and raucous coaching of John Jackson on the third-base line which seemed to unsettle the Media pitcher, was opened by a single by Harry King and Jim McKee followed with another one base blow. Rubincam then forced McKee at second, but there followed Nask's two misplays, a base on balls and a long single by Bob Jones, all of which sent five Narberth runs across the plate. King and McKee, up for the second time in the inning, again came through with base hits, McKee smiting a long double into Windsor Avenue which scored two more runs and adequately protected Jim's title of the "hitting pitcher."

In addition to his batting exploits McKee pitched a capable game while his battery mate, Harry King, was the batting star of the evening with three clean hits.

Spickler's efficient first base play was the high light for the visitors.

The box score:

Take the question of first-cost—and you learn that the Chevrolet Six is one of the lowest priced trucks you can buy!

Investigate economy—and you discover the Chevrolet Six to be more economical to operate than any other truck, regardless of the number of cylinders.

Investigate stamina, reliability and upkeep costs—and you find that Chevrolet owners frequently report such records as "20,000 miles without opening the engine"—"50,000 miles and still dependable"—"ten months with practically no expense for repairs."

As for speed and power, Chevrolet gives you a six-cylinder 50-horsepower engine—25% more powerful than the engine in any other truck in the lowest price field. And as for capacity, Chevrolet's longer wheelbase, sturdy frame and long springs permit the mounting of extra-large Chevrolet-built bodies.

Before you buy a truck for any purpose, find out about six-cylinder Chevrolet trucks. Your Chevrolet dealer has the facts.

Narberth Players Group To Participate in Pageant

The Narberth Players group will participate in the Wayne historical pageant to be given there on September 24, 25 and 26. All members are requested to be present at the next meeting of the group to be held Thursday evening, September 10th, at the home of Mrs. James D. Moore, 246 Dudley Avenue.

Work will be begun then on the tableau to be presented at the pageant. It will consist of a reception to General Anthony Wayne in the City Tavern, Philadelphia, upon his return from the Indian wars in Ohio. The Narberth group will be assisted in this by the Color Guard of the First City Troop of Philadelphia.

At the last meeting of the Narberth Players' Group held recently at the home of Mrs. H. I. McConnell, further plans were laid for launching the dramatic season which the club is to sponsor. The committee on the selection of plays has been busy reading several manuscripts with a view to the selection of the first vehicle to be presented sometime in the early fall, and announcement of the name and exact date will soon be made.

Russell Green, president of the club, is making an intensive study of the organization and structure of other players' groups and through his observations the club expects to profit by the experiences of these clubs which, in some instances date back thirty and forty years.

Forming Men's Bridge Club in Borough

A men's bridge club is being formed in Narberth, designed to have a large membership and permanent quarters. Edward C. Griswold, of Chestnut Avenue, has been active in gathering a congenial group together and to date some forty men have signified their desire to join.

The building and loan room in the Borough Hall has been leased as quarters for the new club. Tables will be set up at the club room every week day evening, save for the meeting nights of the Narberth Building and Loan. Formal organization has not yet been completed and any men interested are invited to communicate with Mr. Griswold.

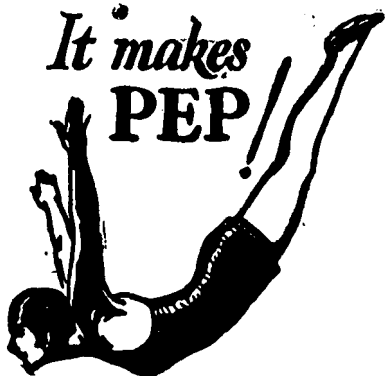

To a better world. Leaving a note to the effect that he was going to "a better world," Richmond Berry, 25, who made his home with his sister and brother-in-law, Dr. and Mrs. E. H. Weber, of Woodside Avenue, Narberth, was found dead lying under his automobile, his head beneath the exhaust pipe, on the Mays Landing Road, near Somers Point, early last Thursday morning. He was a former Lower Merion High School athlete.

Our Coal Prices are Higher and Lower . . .

You see, effective September 1, prices in the entire section advanced from the summer level. . . . But the new price is lower than that prevailing last year. It averages 75c per ton lower for most of the grades of anthracite sold here.

Lower than other coal costs are those of L. M. Thompson's Lehigh Valley and Delaware and Lackawanna Anthracite Coal—BECAUSE our coal is harder and cleaner. . . . And that means more enduring heat for each ton you buy here.

And therefore we contend that although coal prices have advanced, you pay less this year than last, and when you buy L. M. Thompson's coal, you get more heat for your money.

B. M. and Narberth Clash In Crucial Contest Saturday

the hands of these Bryn Mawrites on August 1, when the heavy hitting of Johnny Curvan and the cool pitching of Charley Townsend (both former Narberth players) gave the Redmen an 8-4 victory over the borough team.

Manager Davis, however, is confident that his boys will provide much sterner opposition this time, as he has finally got a smooth-working infield quartet in Jefferies, Baker, MacGregor and Jones, which should improve the team's chances in no small way, as infield misplays played a big part in Narberth's defeats in important contests in both the first and second halves.

If Narberth emerges victorious from the clash with the league leaders they must still defeat Llanerch and Paoli on Labor Day to stay in the race. The Llanerch team, which will be the morning opponent on Labor Day, should not cause the Davismen much trouble, but they will have to be at their best to conquer the hard-hitting Paoli outfit which comes here in the afternoon game of the holiday twin bill. Manager Davis is in rather a quandary about his pitching selections for these difficult contests, but he will probably depend on John Jackson, conquerer of Hilldale, against Bryn Mawr, while Bill Reynolds will take the hill against Paoli. This will leave either Keith Parks or Jim McKee to handle the hurling against Llanerch and either of these boys should be able to handle Wyc Justis' team without a great deal of trouble.

Increased Enrollment Expected at Junior High

The report that the Junior High School would be smaller on opening day this year seems to be wrong. The indications point to at least an increase of fifty over last year's opening number. The high school group will also be increased by a like number, giving a total in the two high schools of about 1600 on opening day. This number will increase during the year until about 1800 students will be enrolled.

It is interesting to note that there is only one change in the faculty of the Junior High this year. Mr. Lincoln is taking the place of Mr. Unversagt, who resigned upon the completion of the term last year.

By ROBERT J. EDGAR

So long, Japanese beetles!

Hello, little beetle grubs!

Cooler nights bring better dahlias.

Asters (annual asters) should be planted on new ground each year as it requires two years to mature the root aphids which destroy them. After two years the same soil may be used again.

Aster yellows is a bacterial disease, spread by a leaf hopper, and is difficult to control. Destroy affected plants promptly to prevent spread.

Hardy asters, called fall asters or Michaelmas Daisies, may be transplanted as the flowers are fading or in early spring.

All fall-planted perennials should be mulched lightly after the ground has frozen, about Christmas time, to prevent the winter sun from thawing out the soil. Salt hay, or marsh hay, is the ideal material.

Pity the poor private estate gardeners. The owners go to Maine in the summer and find lawns, trees, shrubs and flowers growing luxuriantly for a short season of three to four months, but resting for a long winter of from eight to nine months. Our plants only rest for six months and are asked to grow for six months. Naturally our gardens look duller in comparison with the Northern States, but our spring and fall seasons are just about ideal for human enjoyment.

Notice an odd leaf of swamp maple, or a few stems of sumac that have prematurely taken on their vivid fall coloring. Just a suggestion of our roadsides, woods and hillsides in the gloriously colorful days of October. Plan to enjoy the beautiful fall landscape by driving to Valley Forge when the dogwoods are in fruit and in fall color. No need to turn back from Valley Forge; there are many, many miles of beauty on the Main Line and in the surrounding country. And right here the picture lasts for many weeks—in Pennsylvania beautiful.

Pansy seedlings and English daisies, too, may be transplanted to roomier quarters and set three inches apart in a cold frame to remain until time for setting out in spring.

The same applies to perennial seedlings. When they have two sets of true leaves the little plants may be given more space in which to grow so that they may be transplanted in spring with a good ball of soil.

If there is a spare cold frame try some plants of sweet violets. Keep them from hard freezing and the violet fragrance may be enjoyed all winter in the house.

Have seeds, fresh seeds, of annual larkspur, blue cornflower, Shirley poppies, China pinks and forget-me-not to sow outdoors over the fall-planted bulbs. A light covering of salt hay, criss-crossed, is all the protection they require.

BUSINESS BITS

Mrs. Allen's Retta Shop reopened for the season this week in the Rittenhouse Arcade, Montgomery Pike near Meeting House Lane. She plans to offer women's and children's dresses for sale exclusively, and will dispose of her children's underwear, toys, etc., at prices lower than cost.

Also in the Arcade, Robert Little, Jr., is reopening his radio sales and service shop.

Nearby, at 910 Montgomery Avenue, Narberth, Kitty McLean's Hockey Shop acquired a brand-new sign in front this week. Miss McLean is expected to return on the 15th, for the fall season.

Almar Stores did not seem to "click" on the Main Line. One in Narberth, on Haverford Avenue, was discontinued over a year ago. Last week the only Almar store in Bala-Cynwyd, on Bala Avenue near Highland, closed its doors.

As we are going into the big end of our selling season, we have openings for a few high-grade salesmen for the Main Line. Opportunity for earnings and advancement limited by energy and ability.

said, "against the idea that in a primary election a candidate has to get permission from one man to run for nomination, and if he persists in seeking nomination, that he be accused of not being 'regular.' The idea of the Uniform Primary Act is to permit a candidate to take his case before the voters. Regularity does not consist in helping one man to perpetuate his selfish rule, but is a matter of adherence to the party in the general election. *Even Charles Johnson can forget regularity if it suits his own ends, as shown by the fact he once cut the regular Republican nominee for District Attorney (Theodore Lane Bean) and supported Larzelere, a Democrat."

Mr. Stites then went on to show the workings of the Courthouse ring. He stated that county officials, on finishing a term in one job, were given another, so that a small group controls nearly all the jobs without interference. He further stated that these officials, in addition to drawing fat salaries, placed their own relatives in appointive positions, giving no other citizen of the county a chance.

"The enthusiasm for the anti-Johnson cause this year is the greatest I have ever seen," he said, "but the gang has plenty of money; $5000 per candidate for the privilege of Johnson's support mounts up into a pretty big war chest."

James S. Boyd, president of the Senate, visited the meeting and urged the support of the entire Boyd-Just ticket. "Nepotism," he said, "is bringing back to this county the very things we left England to get away from. The spirit of hereditary right must give way to some consideration for the party workers and taxpayers. There must be a fair rotation in office. Minor jobs must be rotated so as to help out in unemployment."

Fred Walzer not only made the speech of the evening, but no doubt the speech of his career. He was vehement, humorous, fluent and dramatic. "Boyd is the Moses to lead us out of the wilderness. We must take the shackles from our necks," he said.

Brief talks were made by Carl B. Metzger, Mr. Crowell, Mr. Young and Arthur Strouse, the other candidate for County Commissioner. Plans were laid for the formation of a women's group and for a later meeting at the call of the chair. The name, "Narberth Progressive Republican Committee," was adopted, and John Baker elected secretary.

Narberth Woman Captures Archery Tourney Honors

At the third annual tournament of the Philadelphia Archery Association, held on the polo field of the Philadelphia Country Club last Sunday, Mrs. F. Van Buren Connell, of Narberth, made a score of 721 for the double American round, bettering her performance at the Huntingdon Valley Country Club, when she won the women's 1931 championship for Philadelphia. In the afternoon she also won the old English clout shoot for women. The active membership of the Philadelphia Archery Association comprises those living within fifty miles of Philadelphia. There were many contestants from distant points, including the Avondale Archers and Potomac Archers, of Washington, D. C. One of the novelties of the meet was the Chinese whistling arrow, shot by Dr. Elmer, past national champion.
